

Men's Retreat April 25-27

Giving it away

"If you give your tools away, you never have to worry about losing them"

In nature spring is a time of renewal, rejuvenation and growth.

The Narcotics Anonymous Spring Cleaning Retreat is a place where men can focus on and bring these attributes into their personal recovery, along with great fellowship and fun at a special facility located right next to the Pacific Ocean in picturesque Cambria, on the central coast of California.

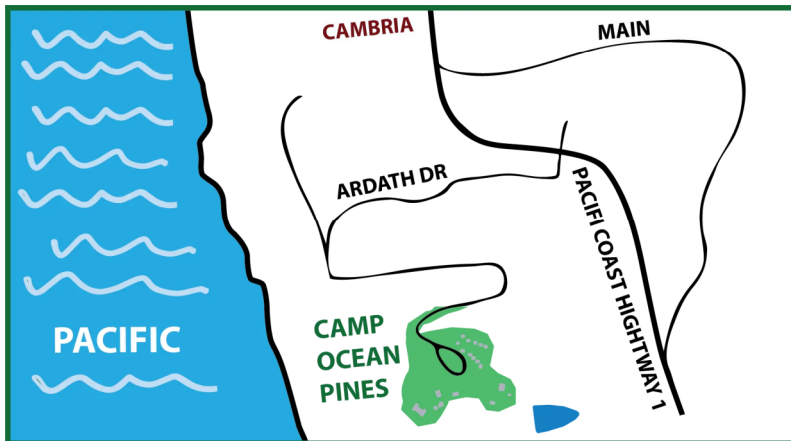

A retreat can be an excellent time to reinvigorate your recovery, take stock of things, hang out with buddy's and make new friends. It's about fellowship, sure, but it's also about priorities, spiritual fitness and giving back what we were so freely given.

Speaker Meetings // Topic Discussion Meetings Meditation // Games // Meals Included.

Camp Ocean Pines is located on a bluff just above scenic beach walks and tide pools just off the Pacific Coast Highway. 1 on California's magnificent Central Coast
